

LESSON 5. FIVE SENSES

Show you teacher where they are.

Vocabulary Build Up

■ Matching Exercise.

Example:

Touch: I touch with my HANDS.

TOUCH: I touch with my ...

TASTE: I taste with my ...

SIGHT: I see with my ...

SMELL: I smell with my ...

HEARING: I hear with my ...

a. TONGUE

b. EARS

c. EYES

d. HANDS

e. NOSE

- Practice the sentences with your teacher.

Look at the butterfly.
It looks beautiful.

Listen to the music.
It sounds wonderful.

Smell the flowers.
It smells good.

Touch the stuffed toy.
It feels soft.

Show objects and practice using your five senses.

Activity 1

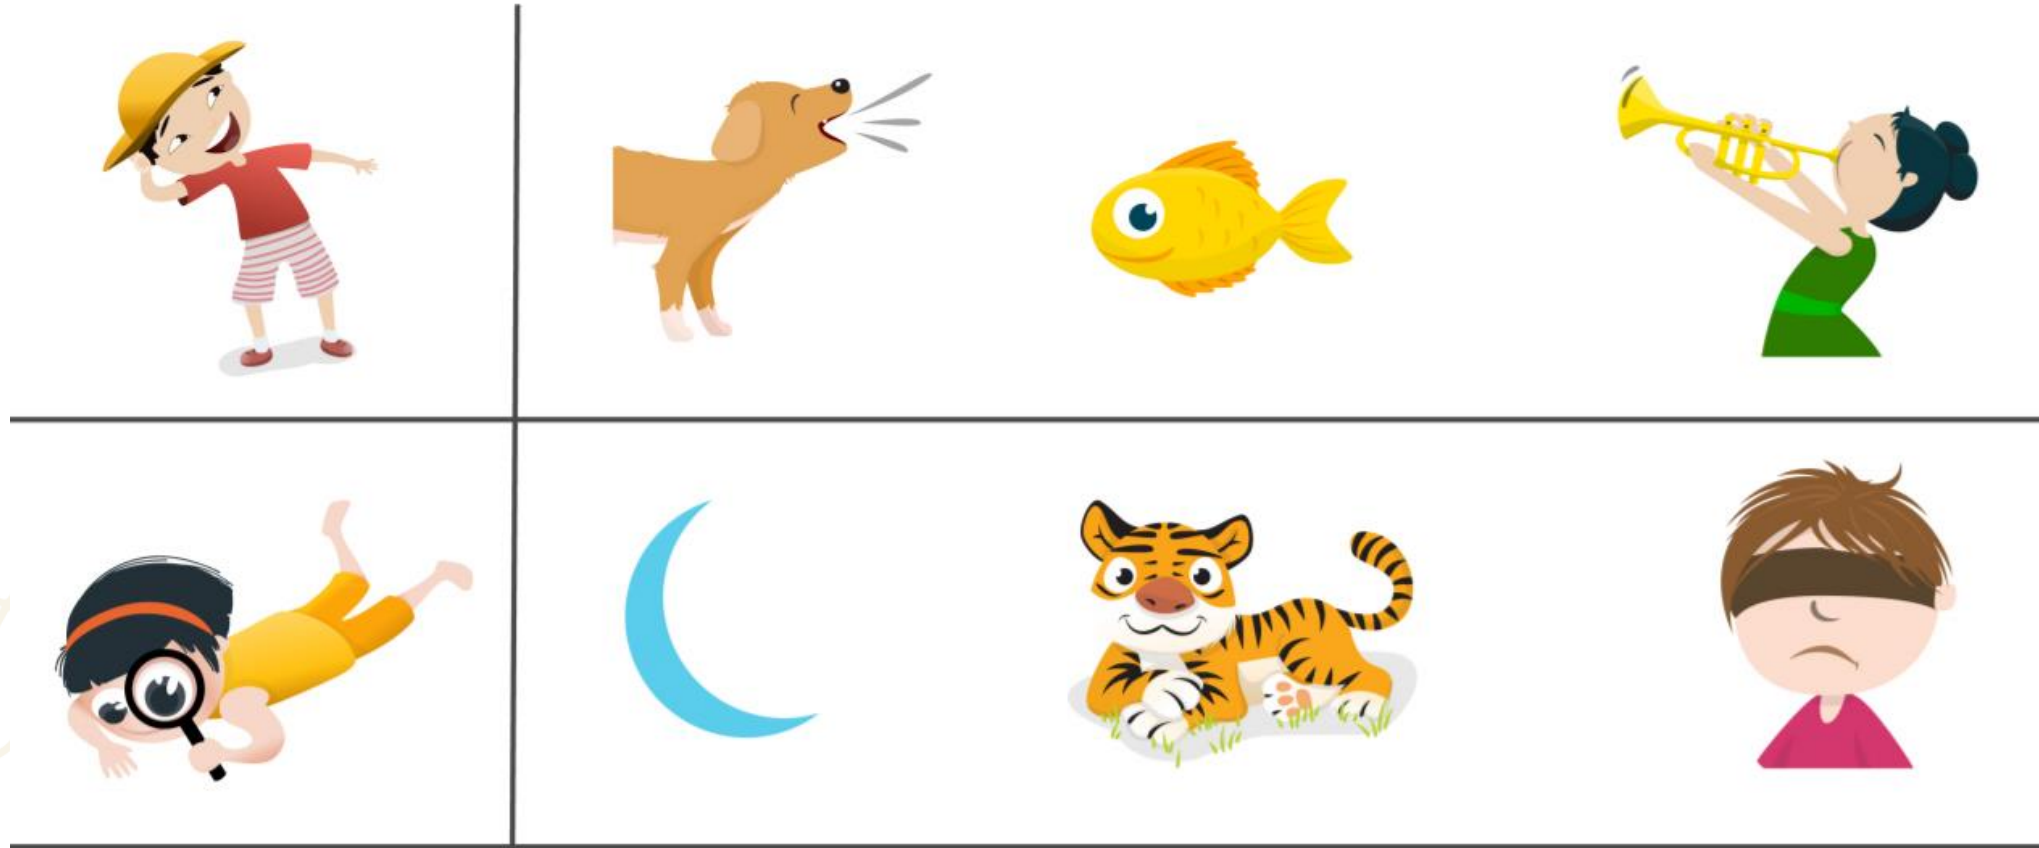

- Identify and use your senses to describe the following.

- a. Soft
- b. fragrant
- c. Sweet
- d. Sour
- e. Noisy
- f. Beautiful
- g. hard

Let's Practice

- Look at the pictures in each row and identify the odd one out.

Let's Practice

5 SENSES

I use my five senses all of the time, each and everyday. They help me to understand the world around me! My five senses are seeing, feeling, hearing, tasting and smelling.

I see with my eyes. I see the ocean . It's blue with lots of waves. I feel with my hands and skin. I feel the raindrops on my skin. They are cold and wet. I hear with my ears. I hear the music. It is a piano and it sounds beautiful. I taste with my mouth and tongue. I taste the ice cream. It is sweet and very cold. I smell with my nose. I smell the pizza. It smells delicious! I use all of my senses, all of the time!

■ TRUE or FALSE

1. We have four senses.
2. We see with our eyes.
3. We smell with our tongue.
4. We touch with our ears.
5. We hear with our nose.
6. You can hear the flowers.
7. You can touch the air.
8. You can taste the apple.
9. You can see beautiful sceneries.
10. Our senses are seeing, feeling, hearing, tasting and smelling.

Speaking Practice

- Complete the sentences.

I like the smell of

I love the taste of

I enjoy touching

I don't like the sound of

I want to see

I don't enjoy the smell of

I like to listen to

The End