Lesson 8. Narrative Tenses

Learning Objectives

After this lesson, students will be able to:

• Identify what the narrative tenses are.
• Review forms and functions of each narrative tense.
• Compare the functions of narrative tenses against each other.
• Familiarize one’s self with conjunction, time markers and linking devices commonly used in narrating stories.
• Narrate stories based on different topics using the proper forms of narrative tenses, conjunctions, time markers and linking devices.
Lesson 8. Narrative Tenses

We use narrative tenses to talk about the past. We can use them to tell a story or to describe past events, including personal anecdotes.

Examples:

 наружение | продолжение | perfect | perfect
--- | --- | --- | ---
When I lived on the island, I enjoyed walking on the beach in the early morning with Bonnie - my best friend and my dog.

Britain declared war on Germany on 3 September 1939 after Germany had attacked Poland two days earlier. Britain had been trying to negotiate a peaceful settlement.

The four narrative tenses are the past simple, past continuous, past perfect and past perfect continuous and one or more of these can be used in a sentence.

Example:

We were walking as usual one day, when all of a sudden, Bonnie shot off. She started to bark furiously. I saw a man sleeping face down on the sand. Bonnie continued to bark, but the man didn’t wake up. He wasn’t sleeping; he was dead. It was clear that the storm had washed up the body.

When narrating past events, DO NOT mix past and present tenses (avoid using the present perfect and present simple), as these will confuse the reader/listener about when things really happened.
Lesson 8. Narrative Tenses

 CONJUNCTIONS (After, As soon as, Before, By the time, Once, till, When, Unless, Until)
With these conjunctions of time, the past perfect shows that the first action MUST BE COMPLETED before the second action begins, otherwise the past simple is used.

- After...she finished, they left / she had finished, they left. (She had to finish first)
- As soon as...we arrived she said “hello”. / I had done it, I sent it to her. (I had to do it first)
- She wouldn’t sign the contract before...seeing it / she had seen it. (She had to see it first)
- They wouldn’t go unless...she came with them / they had seen it was safe.
- (It was important to finish checking that it was safe before going)

 More examples of Past Perfect Tense
- We were shocked to discover that someone had graffitied “Tootles was here” on our front door.
- We were relieved that Tootles had used washable paint.
- I turned back to the house and saw that someone named Tootles had defaced my front door!
Lesson 8. Narrative Tenses

* * Would (+ adverb of frequency) + verb can be used to express past habits which do not happen now.

⇒ My grandfather would always read the newspaper at breakfast time. (He doesn’t do it now)

Using ‘would’ instead of ‘used to’ often gives an idea of nostalgia. However, if the adverb of frequency is stressed, it can give the idea that the habit was annoying.

⇒ My mother would never let me do what I wanted to do.

NOTE: ”WOULD” can not be used in past states.

⇒ I would live in Canada. ❌

3. is often used in stories and dialogue, too.

When Bobby went down for breakfast, Matt looked up.

“Did you hear the storm last night?”

Bobby didn’t answer.

“Your brother went out last night. He didn’t come back. Do you know where he went?”

Bobby’s heart sank. She knew exactly where Dan had gone...
Lesson 8. Narrative Tenses

The Past Continuous Tense. As with all continuous tenses, the past continuous gives the idea of activity and duration. The past continuous is used:

1. to describe the situation in which the events of the narrative occurred.
   - When I woke up at 8am (1) the sun was shining (2) and the birds were singing (2). I had a shower (3), ate some breakfast (4) and left for work at 9am. (5)

2. to express an activity in progress at a time in the past.
   - What were you doing (1) when I called (2) you?

3. the past continuous also expresses the idea of:
   - An interrupted activity: She was reading a book when the door bell rang. (She read a book = she finished it)
   - An unfinished activity: I was reading the book you lent me. (I read the book... = I finished reading the whole book)
   - A repeated action: They were shooting at the enemy. (They shot.... = They fired the gun one time only)
   - A temporary situation: She was standing on the corner waiting for a bus. (She stood on the corner. = Permanent situation)

Lesson 8. Narrative Tenses

The past perfect simple is used

1. to show that an action or situation happened BEFORE the events in the narrative described in the simple past.

   ➡️ *When I woke up at 8am (1), the sun was shining and the birds were singing. I had slept (2) really well the night before. I had a shower (3), ate some breakfast (4) and left for work at 9am.*

 If the subject of two verbs is the same, you don’t have to repeat the had auxiliary.

   ➡️ *When I arrived, he had finished his lunch and left the room.*

2. Making a narrative more interesting to read.
   It is generally seen as bad literary style to have too many verbs in the same tense. In English it is always best to AVOID REPETITION where possible. This same sentence could be improved for dramatic effect by using the past perfect simple

   ➡️ *I woke up at 8am and left for work after I’d had a shower and eaten some breakfast.
CONJUNCTIONS (After, As soon as, Before, By the time, Once, till, When, Unless, Until)
With these conjunctions of time, the past perfect shows that the first action MUST BE COMPLETED before the second action begins, otherwise the past simple is used.

- After...she finished, they left / she had finished, they left. (She had to finish first)
- As soon as...we arrived she said “hello”. / I had done it, I sent it to her. (I had to do it first)
- She wouldn’t sign the contract before.... seeing it / she had seen it. (She had to see it first)
- They wouldn’t go unless....she came with them / they had seen it was safe. (It was important to finish checking that it was safe before going)

Provide your own examples using the proper form of Past Perfect tense and each conjunction listed above.
Lesson 8. Narrative Tenses

The Past Perfect Continuous The past perfect continuous is used for longer activities that were happening continuously up until a specified time in the past.

- He looked very tired (1), he had been working very hard (2) over the past three weeks.

As with the past continuous, the past perfect continuous can show the following:

1. Unfinished activity
   - He hadn’t heard the telephone ring because he’d been reading.

2. Repeated activity
   - I was tired. I’d been cleaning the house all day.

With the past perfect simple, the focus is on the completed activity.

- He had written three letters that morning.
- He had delivered twelve parcels today.

18. I forgot that I ________ to buy some bread. (want)
19. She knew that because someone ________ her before. (tell)
20. It was so hot in the kitchen because Sue ________ cakes. (bake)
The Future in the Past
The future in the past is used to look into the future from a point of time in the past. However, this “future” event still occurred at a time before the present time.

I woke up (1) at 8am yesterday. I was meeting my boss (2) at ten o’clock that morning, so I wouldn’t be able to have lunch (3) with Susan. I wasn’t going to get home (4) again until late that night.

NOTE: Depending on the situation, the following tenses are used in the future in the past:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>The past simple (a timetabled event)</th>
<th>The past continuous (an arrangement)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(a prediction)</td>
<td>was going to (a plan)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>would be doing (an action at a specific time)</td>
<td>would have done (action completed before a specified time)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Lesson 8. Narrative Tenses

When we tell a story in the past, we often use linking words or phrases to join two or more sentences or clauses. This helps the narrative to flow in a more interesting and natural way. Some linking phrases and words show a sequence of events or actions.

Nelson Mandela never gave up on his struggle against apartheid. As the years went by, his fame spread to every corner of the world. In the end, under enormous global pressure, the government had no option but to release him.

Other linking words and phrases that signal order of events are: First of all ..., Then ..., Next ..., Finally ..., After that ..., After several months/days/hours/weeks ..., By the time ..., All of a sudden ...

We also use linking words and phrases in dialogue to indicate interest in what is being said and to keep the conversation flowing.

So how did you meet your wife?

Well, it’s a strange story: what happened was I was training as a paramedic and one day we got a call to a house in East Street.

Oh, my cousin lives there! ...

Really? ... So, anyway, when we arrived in East Street, another ambulance was already there!

So what happened?

Sylvie and I treated the patient together. The rest is history!
Narrate stories about the topics below. Make sure to use proper narrative tenses, conjunctions and linking devices.

1. favorite childhood memory
2. memory of a strict classroom teacher
3. a conversation with a foreign individual
4. first ever online class experience
5. your strangest dream
6. remarkable moment with your circle friends
7. instance when you laughed hard
8. instance when you received a shocking news
